I Have Purchased the Fur

Stock of Mr. Martin Wolf,

617 11th St. N. W.

—And now the entire balance of Mr. Martin Wolf's Fur stock has come into my possession by direct purchase from the assignee. The sale of same will continue in the store in which Mr. Wolf has conducted his fur business for many years. I need not dwell in length upon the virtues and merits of "Wolf's furs," for it is well known throughout the District—that reliable character and high quality the stock contained in the Wolf establishment was possessed of.

The finest Alaska Sealskin, Persian Lamb, Mink, Otter, Sable, Ermine and Electric Seal Garments are represented, besides Coats, Capes, Scarfs, Muffs and Fanny Neckpieces of almost every other known fur. Children's Fur Sets and Trimmings, Baby Carriage Robes, Parlor Rugs, Men's Sealskin Caps and Gloves are also included in this sale.

I desire particularly to direct attention to the choice stock of Cloth Jackets and Tailor-made Suits and Skirts which is also represented. This stock appeals to every woman in Washington, even those with light purses, as none need forego the charms and comforts of rich furs because of high prices.

THIS FUR SALE AFFORDS THE OPPORTUNITY

Of purchasing the most sumptuous pieces at prices that have never been touched for littleness on goods of equal merit. Even the word sacrifice does not justify the magnanimity of the bargains. Particular attention is directed to the fact that Mr. Martin Wolf will personally conduct the sale, and would be pleased to wait on any of his old customers who desire his services. Furs, like rare gems, are never out of place to purchase, so those sharing in the extraordinary offerings that this sale affords may have the satisfaction of knowing that in five or ten years hence their purchases are as valuable or probably will then be of more value than at the present time.

All goods marked in plain figures—strictly one price to all. Experienced salesladies wanted. Sale opens at 9 o'clock tomorrow a.m. Mr. Martin Wolf will personally conduct this sale with his own force of salesladies, and if any article purchased is not satisfactory Mr. Wolf will cheerfully exchange the purchase as in the past.

DAVID F. MANN,

Purchaser of the Martin Wolf Fur Stock, 617 Eleventh St. N.W.

THE WORLD OF SOCIETY

Mrs. Chandler Entertains at a Pretty Tea.

Saturday Dinners and the Notables at Them—A Timely Personal Note.

Mrs. Chandler's reception on Saturday afternoon in honor of the senator's daughter-in-law, Mrs. Lloyd H. Chandler, brought together in their home, so long identified with the official life of the capital, a large gathering of friends. Mrs. Chandler was elegantly dressed in jetted black net, and the guest of honor wore coral canvas with lace insertions over a silk. Assisting in the entertainment of the guests were Mrs. O. W. Mansfield of Boston, who is at present visiting Mrs. Chandler; Mrs. Frye, Mrs. and Miss Bradford, with Mrs. Charles Campbell and Miss White presiding at the table in the dining room. The house was beautifully adorned with long-stemmed roses on the mantels and tables, while in the dining room, more roses formed the centerpiece on the table, the tapers burned under red shades and the confections were of the same warm tint. Senator Frye, who was early in attendance, enjoyed for the first time a participation in a Washington afternoon tea. The Senate was well represented, as was the diplomatic and resident society generally.

The Spanish minister and the Duchess d'Arcos, Mrs. Clinton Cushing and Representative and Mrs. McCallister were Saturday dinner guests.

Mrs. Curry entertained at a large luncheon today.

The Secretary of the Interior and Mrs. Hitchcock gave a very beautifully appointed dinner Saturday night in honor of the Hon. J. M. McKim, who was accompanied by his wife and daughter. The table and the house were suitably adorned with a quantity of fine flowers and plants. The additional guests were the Secretary of State and Mrs. Hay, the Secretary of the Treasury and Mrs. Gage, the Secretary of War and Mrs. Root, the Secretary of the Navy and Miss Long, the Postmaster General, the Attorney General, the Secretary of Agriculture and Miss Wilson, Senator and Mrs. Hanna, Mr. and Mrs. Perry, Mrs. Selfridge, the Misses Hitchcock and Mr. George C. Hitchcock.

Miss Susan B. Anthony and Rev. Anna Shaw addressed a gathering Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. M. McKim. Quite a distinguished group of the friends of the hostess heard suffrage doctrine clearly and pointedly presented by these two leading exponents of the cause.

Mrs. George M. Sternberg will not receive tomorrow or on Tuesday, February 27, but will be at home Tuesday, February 27.

Mrs. Wm. M. Meredith, wife of Capt. Meredith of the bureau of the U. S. Army, engraving and printing, has returned with her daughter, Mrs. Edward G. Niles, from Chicago for a two weeks' visit.

Mrs. Francis S. Nash will not receive tomorrow or on Tuesday, February 27, but will be at home Tuesday, February 27.

Mrs. Nathaniel G. White and Miss White, 1615 New Hampshire avenue, will not be at home tomorrow.

Mrs. Banks of New York and Miss Rogers of Georgia are visiting Mrs. Lindsay, 171 Massachusetts avenue.

Mrs. William F. Aldrich of Alabama, No. 151 New Hampshire avenue, will not be at home Tuesday, the 13th.

Mrs. Monroe of 3107 N street will not be at home tomorrow, but will receive the following Tuesdays in February from 3 to 6.

A reception was given by the Ladies' Aid Society of Brightwood Park M. E. Church Friday last at the home of Mrs. Stutzman on Erie street. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Angel, Mr. and Mrs. Stutzman, Mr. and Mrs. Delaney, Mr. and Mrs. Perry, Mr. and Mrs. Preston, Mesdames McCall, McAleer, Gooch, Mellen, Grimm, Pitt, Walmsley, Thomas, Mummaw, Weber, Rupertus, Sands, Misses Osborn, Tolson, Mummaw, Maggie and Dora Gardner, McAleer, Gooch, Mathanay, Bell and Sadie Mellen, Krause, Reed, Mohler, Annborn, Edna and Lizzie Ritchie, Weber, Sands, Messrs.
